

Local Government Transparency Code 2015

Annual Report 2023 - 2024

This Local Government Transparency Code 2015 was issued to meet the government’s desire to place more power into citizens’ hands to increase democratic accountability and make it easier for local people to contribute to the local decision-making process and help shape public services. Transparency is the foundation of local accountability and the key that gives people the tools and information they need to enable them to play a bigger role in society.

For more information on the Local Government Transparency Code: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/local-government-transparency-code-2015>

The Code requires all Parish Councils to publish data if they have a gross annual income or expenditure exceeding £200,000. The Code specifies how frequently data is to be published, be it quarterly, annually or once only, but in many cases encourages more frequent publication. Saxmundham Town Council aims to publish information on a more frequent basis where it considers this would be beneficial. In accordance with the Code, we publish the following reports:
