The Planning Inspectorate follows strict criteria when assessing responses. To make your representation as effective as possible, follow these tips.

DO

VS

AVOID

Submit a clear, reasoned statement that explains your concerns. Help the Examining Authority understand real-life impact.

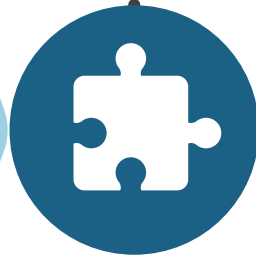

Don't rely on vague or emotional objections like 'I don't want it here'. Don't submit an overly long or unfocused response.

Focus on planning issues: cumulative impact, environment, traffic, pollution, heritage, wellbeing and landscape.

Don't raise matters which cannot be considered, such as general dislike of change or falling property values.

Use your own words. Personal and unique submissions carry more weight.

Don't use copied template statements. Duplicates are less influential and may be disregarded.

Suggest community benefits or mitigations - this does not mean you support the proposals.

Don't assume it's a 'done deal'. Registering now still gives you an opportunity to influence the decision.

Ask for support if needed - the Town Council is here to help.

Don't be discouraged by the process - your views matter.

Don't miss the deadline - midnight on 23 June 2025!
